

IC 31-14-10

Chapter 10. Hearing to Determine Support, Custody, and Parenting Time Following Determination of Paternity

IC 31-14-10-1

Hearing to determine support, custody and parenting time following initial determination of paternity; order to probation officer or caseworker to prepare report

Sec. 1. Upon finding that a man is the child's biological father, the court shall, in the initial determination, conduct a hearing to determine the issues of support, custody, and parenting time. Upon the request of any party or on the court's own motion, the court may order a probation officer or caseworker to prepare a report to assist the court in determining these matters.

As added by P.L.1-1997, SEC.6. Amended by P.L.68-2005, SEC.15.

IC 31-14-10-2

Consultation with probation officer or caseworker; referral of child for evaluation

Sec. 2. The probation officer or caseworker may do the following:

- (1) Consult with any person who may have information about the child and the child's potential custodial arrangements.
- (2) Upon approval of the court, refer the child for professional diagnosis and evaluation.
- (3) Without consent from the child's parent or guardian, consult with and obtain information concerning the child from:
 - (A) medical;
 - (B) psychiatric;
 - (C) psychological; or
 - (D) other;

persons who have knowledge of the child.

As added by P.L.1-1997, SEC.6.

IC 31-14-10-3

Findings and orders without hearing

Sec. 3. The court may make findings and orders without holding the hearing required by section 1 of this chapter if:

- (1) the mother and the alleged father execute and file with the court a verified written stipulation; or
- (2) the parties have filed a joint petition;

resolving the issues of custody, child support, and parenting time. The court shall incorporate provisions of the written stipulation or joint petition into orders entered under this section.
